

Bugs, Bees and Butterflies

E.K. Schwartz

Refrain

Voice

Bugs and bees — and but-ter - flies — crawl on the ground. Fly high up in the sky.

Bugs and bees — and but-ter - flies — live in the world with me. 1. The ants go crawl - ing one by one. — They're look-ing for food. They're look-ing for crumbs. — The ants go crawl - ing one by one. — They're look - ing for food — and crumbs.

Verse 2. The grasshopper jumps from stalk to stalk
He's always jumping; he never walks
The grasshopper jumps from stalk to stalk
He's always jumping; he never walks

Verse 3. The ladybug hides its wings under its shell
Its wings come out and she flies so well
The ladybug hides its wings under its shell
Its wings come out and she flies so well

Verse 4. A spider spins a beautiful web
It comes out in a tiny thread
A spider spins a beautiful web
It comes out in a tiny thread

Verse 5. The caterpillar goes to sleep in its cocoon
I know a butterfly is coming soon
The caterpillar goes to sleep in its cocoon
I know a butterfly is coming soon
